

Our civil rights are severely compromised when the information we receive is controlled by a few media giants. Instead of freedom of the press, biased propaganda can be passed off as the truth. Please limit the number of media outlets any one company can own. Our ability, as a society, to make informed decisions depends on it.